

Gas Tester Entry Level Operator

- Learn and understand equipment used in well testing applications
- Communicate effectively with on site supervisor
- Responsible for personal and others safety
- Learn how to maintain and service well testing equipment under direct supervision
- Learn the logistics of crew and equipment mobilization under direct supervision
- Learn the identify major components and what their applications are
- Immediately learn accurate data collection
- Learn rules and regulations provided by governing regulatory bodies
- Able to work away from home in remote locations
- Physically capable of rigging equipment in and out under direct supervision
- Take orders for assigned duties from supervisors and managers