

Wireline Operator

Wireline Operators are primarily responsible for utilizing surface systems and software to perform cased hole wireline services and acquire quality cased hole logging data while supervising and leading a team of Operators.

Typical Responsibilities include:

- Provide effective management of crew using knowledge of all operator duties and responsibilities.
- Ensure quality control of logging data and of all operations. Provide prompt data delivery to the client
- Monitor all safety practices including expert driving techniques, use of personal protection equipment, maintenance of all safety compliance certificates and licenses, and address all safety hazards with management
- Provide supervision and on-the-job training to new Supervisors and Operators as required
- Conduct ongoing performance reviews as per Opsco's performance management practices
- Interact with clients to provide solutions to customers needs in safe and timely fashion
- Keep accurate and legible accounts of all areas assigned to the Supervisor including- Service Contracts, Client Evaluation, Safety-Hazard ID, Accident Reports, and Expenses

Salary Range: $16-17 per hour if driving truck